

Dragi Dimitrievski is full professor and former Dean of the Faculty of Agricultural Sciences and Food within the Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje. He teaches several courses among which Agricultural Policy at all study cycles, and his research focuses on agricultural policy analysis, farm management, rural development, employment and human resources analysis, and sustainable regional development. He has participated in the development of national strategic documents, and is author and co-author of more than a hundred articles and studies in the field of agricultural economics. He has been a coordinator and national expert in national and international projects funded by SIDA, FAO, GIZ, SDC, UNDP, USAID, UNWOMEN, etc. He is a member of the Supervisory Board of the Association of the Agricultural Economist of the Republic of North Macedonia (AAEM), and has participated at the Agricultural Policy Forum since its very beginning in 2001.